

Dear Prospective Candidate

Royal Mail Candidate Mail Service

As you may already be aware, each candidate in a Parliamentary election is entitled to have delivered one piece of election mail by Royal Mail, without charge to you, to either:

- Each household in the constituency for which they are a candidate (if the mail is unaddressed), or
- Each eligible elector in the constituency for which they are a candidate (if the mail is addressed).

If you feel that the service can be a part of your campaign, then please get in touch with us and we will talk you through the process

You will need to submit a proof of the mail to our Artwork Checking Team (artwork.checking@royalmail.com) for approval*.

Once approved, the team will help you to organise the delivery of your mail and give you the contacts you will need to book your mail in for delivery.

For further information on the service, including the design specifications for your mail, please see the attached candidate mail guide via the link below.
